

RULES AND RENTAL CONDITIONS

1. The tools are rented in a suitable conditions of use, it is the customers job to check their efficiency and to not accept them if they have any defects.
2. The customer is aware that the adjustments of the Alpine skiing bindings are made by the rental shop employee in accordance with the data provided to him and according to the rules issued by the manufacturer of the bindings on hire.
3. In the event of breakage, damage, loss or theft of the rented equipment, the renter is required to reimburse the relevant market value, unless there is an appropriate risk coverage.
4. With a minimum two-day contract, the hired tools can be covered against breakage, theft and loss by adding 10% of the rental amount to the total price. The coverage provides that 75% of the cost is covered by the rental shop and the remaining 25% charged to the renter.
5. In the event of theft of the rented equipment the renter is obliged to file a regular complaint with the police forces.
6. Rented equipment must be returned by the evening of the last agreed rental day. In case of return on the following day, the sum for the additional period will be charged. The Rented equipments returned after 10.00 AM will be considered rented for the day.
7. After seven days from the failure to return within the agreed terms, the renter authorises the rental shop to use their personal data, including their credit card number, to be charged with the value of the market prices mentioned in the contract.
8. The rented tools can be replaced during the rental period which is subject to availability. Replacement with higher category equipment will be charged according to the different prices.
9. In compliance with the law 675/96 art.13 on the protection of personal data, the renter authorises the rental shop to use their personal data for statistical and promotional purposes.
10. For everything else not mentioned here, the renter assumes, for himself and for any minors, the total responsibility of the equipment leased.